

CULTIVATING COMMUNITY

RE-DEFINING OUR APPROACH TO POVERTY

What if our definition of poverty is broken?

Would re-defining the problem, impact the way we solve it?

The workshop will explore a different approach to poverty alleviation, help you cultivate questions for change, & gives practical examples of change in action.

When: February 14th, 2018
Where: Dawe Recreation Centre
56 Holt St. Red Deer
Time: 9am - 11am

Speaker: Paula Cornell, BSW, RSW

Paula is a social worker, idea generator and community programs manager at The Mustard Seed. She is passionate about facilitating discussions around the problem of poverty and finding creative ways to solve it. Paula has been working with people experiencing poverty and homelessness since 2008.
